

Mary Todd Lincoln Seminar

November 2, 2018, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky.
William T. Young Library, The UK AA Auditorium, Room 162.

Mary Todd Lincoln House is partnering with the University of Kentucky to bring 3 well known Mary Lincoln authors to Lexington to celebrate Mary's 200th birthday.

The 3 authors are: Jennifer Fleischner, author of Mrs. Lincoln and Mrs. Keckly, Catherine Clinton, author of Mrs. Lincoln, A Life and Angela Elder, who has written an article comparing how Mary Lincoln and Emilie Todd Helm handled widowhood. This article can be found in Kentucky Women, edited by Melissa McEuen and Thomas Appleton.

The lectures will be packaged as a symposium and the date is November 2. The Symposium is free. But make sure you notify Susan Miller if you are going to attend and you will have reserved seating. Susan Miller – susanviolamiller@gmail.com or home phone 859-885-7294.

For more information about the seminar and schedule go to: www.mtlhouse.org/symposium.

Hotel: Holiday Inn – 1,000 Export Street, Lexington, Kentucky 40504
859-389-6800 – This hotel is a couple of blocks from UK. Cost is $125 a night plus 16.07% tax, which is the state tax and occupancy tax. Please make your reservations at the hotel before OCTOBER 2. You must tell the reservation clerk that you are a member of ALP to receive the discount. There is a UK Home football game on Saturday, November 3. Rooms will be at a premium because of the game. The normal room cost on Nov. 1st is $191.95 and Nov. 2nd is $269.95. Don't delay in making a reservation if you think you will attend.

This hotel is blocks away from UK and less expensive than the hotel MTL House has booked.

Lunch: The Hilary Boone Staff and Faculty Center is right next to the Library on UK's campus. The Boone Center will provide a lovely lunch for the ALP and others attending the Mary Lincoln Seminar. The cost is $20 per person for a sandwich buffet that includes 3 different artisan breads, 3 meats and 3 cheeses, condiment tray, 2 "house made" salads and dessert and beverages. It also includes a service charge.

There are other places to eat on campus but none more convenient than the Hilary Boone Center. If you wish to reserve lunch at the Boone Center please contact Susan Miller at susanviolamiller@gmail.com Sending a check to Susan to pre-pay your lunch would be appreciated. 108 Hidden Meadow Lane, Nicholasville, KY 40356. Deadline for reservations is October 24. Susan has guaranteed 20 guests for lunch.

Parking: There is virtually no parking at the University of Kentucky unless you have a parking pass. There are few paid lots at the library for $2 an hour. The Hilary Boone Center owns the parking lot behind the center. It will provide parking for us but only for those that are attending the lunch.

The Boone Center is directly adjacent to the Center and Library. It is very convenient to park, attend the seminar and walk over for lunch and walk back. The Boone Center has reserved 20 spots in their parking lot for ALP members.

However, we ask people to “ride share”. ALP is asked to car pool from the hotel.

So, instead of paying $20 to park and then have to find a lunch option, come to the Boone Center for lunch and free parking!!

Because of the UK Football Game, no activities have been planned for ALP members.

It's Mary Lincoln's 200th Birthday. Come celebrate it with other Mary Lincoln devotees.
